

ILLINOIS DUNESLAND GARDEN CLUB MEETING
December 14, 2010
Shepherd's Crook

The welcome and the Pledge of Allegiance were given by co-president Sandi Shea. Guests were welcomed, and Judy Golwitzer, a guest, was acknowledged for her beautiful centerpieces on the tables.

Business Meeting

The minutes of the November meeting were read by and approved. The treasurer's report was given by Kathy Knutell, and the Sunshine report was given by Barb Clark. Barb reported that Jean Molidor's husband passed away. Also, Glenda Clark lost a brother, and Willadene Koetz passed away. There were no other committee reports.

Old Business

Logowear items were available for pick up after the meeting. Handbooks were still available for those that needed one. Sandi reported that the monthly minutes were now all posted on the website (September through November) for members to peruse. The minutes read at the meetings would be a summary of the previous month's minutes.

Other Items and Concerns

A reminder was given concerning the events of the January meeting. The yard art votive workshop will be held. Members can still sign up and pay in advance. The photo contest will also be a highlight of the meeting. Members are encouraged to bring their photos, preferably 4 x 6 inch or 5 x 7 inch sizes. Please put name on the back of each photo. Members were also reminded to bring ideas for programs or workshops they would like to see.

The refreshment committee was acknowledged and thanked.

A reminder was given to turn in nametags at the end of meetings. Several nametags are missing. All members who are listed in the yearbook should have a nametag printed.

Beth's tip of the month: Beth showed us how to make an ornament from a toilet paper tube, and also a retro ornament in which she provided a handout with directions.

The meeting was adjourned, and the Christmas luncheon followed. Maravela's provided a wonderful luncheon that was enjoyed by everyone. Following the luncheon the centerpiece workshop, led by Gale Dulien, was held.

Respectfully submitted

Doreen Matteson, Secretary